

That sad Cat has always bothered me we only have 1 cat, and I hate when she is sad. catching her favorite to cheer her up for whatever. Map could be wrong. Trust me.

And then Piggie knew exactly what to do with the floor. ~~She~~ Tells Hazel to stand by it and be ready. Whispers to Rock and Paul.
Paul grabs a pail of water. Rock moves to floor and picks it up. Hazel ~~is~~ helps 1, 2

"Little Piggies - come out come out!

Hazel looking through crack
Pirates nervous coming aboard.

No - Hazel's job is to keep watch through crack. Rock lifts floor alone.

"Paul, bring a pail of drinking water.

Bones be ready to swing the doors open ~~with rope tied~~

Wait for pirates doors not locked.
to push open

Now!

Bones watching from inside with telescope.
Yeah, they are sailing back East full speed.

Make ready to sail - Paul and Rack

Lori and Piggie beneath crows nest

Hazel, you OK? Low growl.

Piggie: you saved us! Low growl louder.

Lori - should we go up and check on her?

Ha! I'm not going up there. More growls

Let her calm down. More growls.

Besides - I've got some fresh snapper to clean and cook. No growls.

Hazel gets out Etching stone.

Piggie OH DEAR waits it out.

Are the Chronosians small like Hazel and Piggie? Maybe They knew we were coming.

c.c. hidden. Hazel ransacks the boat up into Ripping cloud descending over ship

They are sailing on ???
Not good at sharp turns which way? left or right Sharp turn stresses the mast - Piggie trust me Requires strength - but they don't have a Rort
Wait for me to say

They are afraid of the islands They'll approach on our left

Rig both sails - sail with backup main sail pulled

Make it look like they hit the mast cut sail and throw beam with it Pirates cheer and lower sail. Then quick on second and cut Pirates won't follow. But they'll just wait for us. That's why we have this flour.
Do you know what to do with it?
No - but we have more time trust in the map it says later.
